ARTICLE I.

Name, Object and Meetings.

SEC. 1. This Encampment shall be known by the name of

DAUPHIN ENCAMPMENT, No. 10, I. O. O. F.,

and shall possess all the powers and privileges of a Subordinate Encampment, and shall retain the same so long as it acts in conformity to the Warrant granted by the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania. It shall be composed of members who have been regularly initiated in a legally constituted Encampment, and among its objects shall be the creation of a fund by the weekly contributions of its members to relieve them in cases of sickness or distress, in accordance with the laws and usages of the Order.

SEC. 2. Unless authority is obtained from the Grand Encampment to meet monthly it shall hold at least two stated meetings in each month; special meetings may be held if the interests of the Encampment should require. Degrees may be conferred upon duly qualified candidates at special meetings, but no proposition for membership shall be entertained, nor ballot had upon application for membership, nor for degrees. The Officers of Encampments permitted to meet monthly must each serve twelve months to complete a term.

SEC. 3. Five members of the R. P. Degree shall constitute a quorum, and all business, excepting admission in the P. and advancement in the G. R. Degrees, shall be transacted in the R. P. Degree.

ARTICLE II.

Membership, Admission, Etc.

SEC. 1. No person shall be initiated into this Encampment who does not believe in the existence of a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the Universe, and who is not a member of the Third Degree in good standing in a Subordinate Lodge; nor for a less sum than three dollars for all the degrees.

SEC. 2. A candidate for membership must be proposed in writing at a stated meeting by a Patriarch of this Encampment, stating his age, occupation and residence, accompanied by a certificate from the Secretary of the Lodge to which he belongs, that he is in good standing, and has taken the first three degrees. The proposition shall be referred to a committee of three who shall investigate the character and fitness of the applicant for membership, and report at the next stated meeting; whereupon a ballot shall be taken, and if not more than three black balls appear, he shall be elected, and may forthwith be admitted into the Patriarchal Degree, from which time his dues shall be charged by the Scribe. At the next stated meeting he may be elected to the G. R. Degree, and advanced; and at the succeeding meeting he may be elected to the R. P. Degree, and exalted. In all the degrees the election will be by ballot; in the last two a majority of black balls shall reject. In case of rejection, the same degree cannot be balloted for in less than one month. In no case can a member be beneficial in less than six months after having taken the P. Degree, provided that no member shall be entitled to benefits until he shall have received the R. P. Degree.

SEC. 3. When a candidate for initiation shall be rejected by this Encampment, it shall be the duty of the Scribe to send notice of the same to the Grand Scribe of the Grand Encampment of Pennsylvania; and it shall be the duty of the Junior Warden to ascertain from each applicant for membership whether he has been proposed to, and rejected by any other Encampment within the period of six months preceding, and if it shall appear that he has been so rejected, he shall not be initiated.

SEC. 4. A Patriarch having a Withdrawal Card from an Encampment, and in good standing in his Lodge, may apply for membership in this Encampment in the same manner as a candidate for initiation; such proposition (with the Card) shall be referred to a committee of three, who shall examine and report at the next stated meeting upon the fitness of the applicant for membership; whereupon a ballot shall be had, and if not more than three black balls appear, he may be forthwith admitted, and shall not pay less, as admission fee, than one dollar for each degree he has taken, but a larger sum may be fixed by the By-Laws, as well as the time at which he may be beneficial, if of the R. P. Degree.

SEC. 5. A member suspended for non-payment of dues desiring to be restored to membership, shall make application through a member of this Encampment to be so restored, which application shall be referred to a committee of three, whose duty it shall be to investigate his character and fitness for membership, and shall report in writing at the stated meeting thereafter. After the committee to whom it has been referred shall have reported, a ballot shall be taken, and if a majority of the votes be favorable, the applicant shall be restored to membership upon the payment of such sum as the By-Laws shall prescribe.

ARTICLE III.

Dues and Benefits.

SEC. 1. The dues of this Encampment shall not be less than ten cents per week, but may be increased by the By-Laws. A member who shall be in arrears for more than one year's dues may be, by formal action of the Encampment, declared to be suspended for non-payment of dues: Provided, That before any member can be suspended for non-payment of dues, notice of such contemplated action shall be given him.

SEC. 2. Every member of this Encampment who is entitled to benefits under this Constitution and the By-Laws approved in accordance therewith, who, through sickness or disability, is unable to follow his usual or some other occupation whereby he may earn a livelihood, shall be entitled to not less than one dollar per week, as the By-Laws may specify: Provided, That such member is not more than three months in arrears when taken sick, and that his sickness or disability has not originated from intemperance, vicious or immoral conduct. It may be enacted that no benefits shall be allowed for the first week's sickness: Provided further, That this Encampment shall not pay a greater sum per week as benefits in proportion to the amount charged for weekly dues than as follows: For ten cents per week dues, $3.00 per week benefits; for eleven cents per week dues, $3.30 per week benefits ; for twelve cents per week dues, $3.65 per week benefits ; for thirteen cents per week dues, $4.00 per week benefits ; and for all sums exceeding thirteen cents per week, not exceeding a sum per week equal to sixty per cent. of the amount of dues per annum : Provided further, That when this Encampment has not less than $5,000 invested and yielding a revenue, it shall be exempted from the operation of this rate of dues.

SEC. 3. Should a Patriarch's disability be local and apparently permanent, but his general health not disqualify him from following some occupation, he shall not be entitled to benefits under this Constitution.

SEC. 4. Any Patriarch who shall be taken sick or be disabled while in arrears to the Encampment more than three months' dues, cannot, by payment of his arrearages, become beneficial during such sickness ; nor can he of right claim benefits at any time for any known infirmity that occurred previous to his admission into the Encampment,

SEC. 5. On the decease of a Patriarch who is beneficial, a sum of not less than thirty dollars shall be paid to the widow, orphan, or other dependent relative, to be applied to defraying the funeral expenses: Provided, That the same be applied for within one year.

ARTICLE IV.

Of Improper Conduct of Members.

SEC. 1. If any member of this Encampment shall violate the obligations he has taken at initiation, at receiving his degrees or office, or shall knowingly violate the established principles, rules and customs of the Order, or shall disregard the requirements of this Constitution or the By-Laws of this Encampment, or shall commence any proceeding, either at law or in equity, against this Encampment, without having first exhausted all the remedies within the Order, he shall be amenable to the Encampment therefor, and shall be tried and punished by reprimand, fine, suspension or expulsion as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2. No member shall be put upon trial for any offence unless the charge or charges shall be reduced to writing, which shall distinctly specify the cause or causes of the complaint and the time and place of their occurrence, a copy of which shall be furnished by the Scribe to the member complained of. At the next stated meeting of the Encampment, occurring at least two weeks after the charge shall have been preferred, a Committee of five shall be appointed, as the By-Laws shall provide.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Committee to examine the parties, their proofs and witnesses, giving the member charged notice and full opportunity to be present at the examination. The accused and the accuser shall each have the right to be represented before the committee by a member of the Patriarchal branch of the Order. The Committee shall keep a correct journal of their proceedings, and the testimony taken shall be written in ink and be signed by the witness or witnesses. After having heard the evidence and proof they shall reduce their opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the person charged on each specification, to writing, and report the same, together with their journal and the testimony, to the Encampment at its earliest meeting.

SEC. 4. If the Committee find the member guilty or innocent of any charge, he shall be notified thereof, and at the next stated meeting of the Encampment the report shall be considered. After consideration a ballot shall be taken, and if a majority of the votes approve the finding of the Committee, it shall be recorded as the judgment of the Encampment. If found guilty the Encampment shall then prescribe the punishment to be imposed as the laws may direct; the vote thereon shall be by ballot in all cases, but for an expulsion the assent of two-thirds of the members voting shall be required.

SEC. 5. Should any member consider himself aggrieved by the decision of the Encampment on the charges preferred against him, he may appeal at any time within three months; the appeal shall be furnished to the Encampment, and a certified copy must be sent to the Grand Patriarch, showing the date the original was served upon the Encampment; whereupon the appeal together with the journal of the Committee, the testimony taken before the Committee, and a copy of all the minutes of the Encampment relating to the subject matter shall be certified forthwith by the Chief Patriarch and Scribe to the Grand Patriarch. Should the Encampment neglect or refuse to forward the matter herein required for one month, it shall be good cause for the reversal of the action of the Encampment.

SEC. 6. In all cases of suspension for cause, or expulsion, the Scribe shall without delay notify the Grand Scribe thereof. When a member has been expelled the Encampment shall have the power by consent of the Grand Encampment Officers to restore him to membership on a vote by ballot of two-thirds of the members present, and when restored the Grand Scribe shall be notified.

SEC. 7. Should any person feel aggrieved at the action of this Encampment for failing to pay benefits that are claimed, such person shall give the Encampment notice thereof within thirty days after any such action, whereupon the C. P. shall without delay appoint a suitable member of the Order as a Commissioner, to take the testimony that either party may offer in relation to the case. The Commissioner shall, within twenty days, proceed to take the testimony, first giving each party ten days notice of the time and place of meeting for that purpose. The C. P. shall represent the Encampment before the commissioner, and may also be represented by counsel, but counsel representing either party must be an Encampment member in good standing. The Commissioner shall take down fully the testimony of all witnesses offered, and should objections be made to the examination of any witness or to any testimony offered he shall note the same, and shall give ample time and opportunity to both parties to present their witnesses, and for them to testify. The testimony shall be written with ink and be signed by the witness testifying. The appellant must first make out his case. After taking all the testimony the parties may offer, the Commissioner shall immediately certify the same and report it to the Encampment, whereupon the aggrieved party shall be notified that the subject will be considered at the next stated meeting of the Encampment, at which time the Encampment shall consider it, when all the evidence in the case shall be read and the claim be finally determined.

After final action shall be taken by the Encampment in any case arising under this section, and the same be determined against the aggrieved party, or only a part of the claim be granted by the Encampment, the Scribe shall immediately officially notify the aggrieved party of the action of the Encampment, and shall also inform said party that if still dissatisfied with its action upon the subject, they can appeal to the Grand Encampment, at any time within thirty days from the date of the notice, otherwise the action of the Encampment, at the expiration of said time, will be final and conclusive.

Should the aggrieved party appeal from the final action of the Encampment to the Grand Encampment, the appeal must be filed with the Scribe of the Encampment, within the above mentioned time of thirty days, whereupon the Encampment shall, without delay, transmit the same officially to the Grand Patriarch, together with the testimony taken by the Commissioner, extract from the minutes of the Encampment of all proceedings, copies of all accounts, and all other papers and documents relating to the case, which were offered in evidence in the case, when considered by the Encampment, and which alone shall be examined by the Committee on Appeals when hearing the case.

Should the Encampment neglect or refuse to appoint a Commissioner within two meeting nights after receiving notice, or to require the taking of the testimony as herein directed, within a reasonable time, or shall neglect or refuse to send to the Grand Patriarch the appeal, and all the papers in the case, within thirty days after the filing of the appeal, in either event it shall, upon such complaint being made and sustained, be sufficient cause for the Grand Patriarch to reverse the action of the Encampment, and to direct it to pay the benefits claimed; Provided, That an appeal from any such action of the Grand Patriarch may be taken by an Encampment to the Grand Encampment at its next session thereafter.

No rehearing shall be granted by the Grand Encampment in any claim for benefits, after an appeal in the case has been once heard and determined by the Grand Encampment.

SEC. 8. No Appeal relative to the non-payment of weekly benefits or funeral expenses that may be due, or claimed by, or from an Encampment, shall be acted on where it appears that more than six months have elapsed from the time the benefits have accrued or are claimed to have accrued, and the filing of the appeal, unless the party or his legal representatives shall be absent from the State, in which case the time shall be extended to twelve months.

ARTICLE V.

SEC. 1. The elective officers of this Encampment are,—Chief Patriarch, Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Scribe and Treasurer, who shall each serve a regular term, and until their successors are installed. A majority of all the votes cast is necessary to elect. The Scribe and Treasurer shall each be elected for one year, the others for six months.

SEC. 2. No Patriarch shall be eligible to the office of Chief Patriarch until he has served one term as Senior Warden, (except in a new Encampment, or by Dispensation,) and no Patriarch shall be eligible to an elective office until he has served one term in an appointed office. The retiring Chief Patriarch shall fill the position of High Priest for the following term, unless the Encampment shall elect a Past Chief Patriarch to fill that position.

tion ; officers so serving to the end of the term shall be entitled to the honors of the office.

ARTICLE VI.

The election of officers in this Encampment shall be on the first stated meetings in March and September, and the officers elect shall be installed at the first stated meeting thereafter, which shall be the commencement of the term. ## ARTICLE VII.

The Duties of Officers.

ARTICLE VIII.

He shall keep accurate minutes of the proceedings, keep correct accounts between the members and the Encampment, receive all moneys, and pay the same to the Treasurer. He shall draw all orders for money, and attest all official papers, and make to the Encampment and the Grand Encampment such reports as are from time to time required. He shall present the Semi-Annual report for the term upon Installation night, and perform such other duties as the Encampment and the laws demand.

ARTICLE XIII.

of the uninvested funds, and the evidence of all investments; he shall, when in funds pay all orders drawn on him by the Encampment, signed by the Chief Patriarch and Scribe in legal form ; he shall keep a correct account of all money received and orders paid, and be at all times prepared to show the balance in his hands. At the expiration of his term of office, and when a successor has been elected and installed, he shall deliver to him all money, evidence of investment, books, papers and vouchers belonging to the office in his hands. Before entering on the duties of Treasurer he shall give such security as the Encampment may require.

ARTICLE XIV.

If agreed to by a two-thirds vote, it shall become a part of this Constitution, but not otherwise. No amendments can be acted upon oftener than once in five years.

RULES OF ORDER.

RULE 1. The Chief Patriarch having taken the chair, the officers and members shall clothe themselves with appropriate regalia, take their respective seats, and when called to order there shall be general silence.

RULE 2. The business shall be proceeded with in the manner prescribed by the Charge Book.

RULE 3. The presiding officer shall preserve order, and pronounce the decision of the Encampment on all subjects ; he shall decide questions of order without debate, subject to an appeal to the Encampment by any three members, on which appeal no member shall speak but once. The question shall be taken by the Senior Warden as follows : "Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the Encampment ?"

RULE 4. During the reading of the minutes, communications and other papers, and when a member is addressing the Chair, silence shall be observed in the Encampment room.

RULE 5. Any member who shall misbehave himself in the meetings of the Encampment, disturb the order or harmony thereof, either by abusive, disorderly or profane language, or shall refuse obedience to the presiding officer, shall be admonished of his offence from the Chair ; and if he offend again, he shall be excluded from the room for the evening, and afterwards dealt with as the By-Laws prescribe.

RULE 6. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except it be to call him to order.

RULE 7. If a member while speaking be called to order he shall, at the request of the Chair, take his seat until the question of order is determined, when, if permitted, he may proceed again.

RULE 8. Each member when speaking shall be standing, and respectfully address the Chair, confine himself to the question under debate, and avoid all personality, indecorous or sarcastic language.

RULE 9. If two or more members rise to speak at the same time, the Chief Patriarch shall decide which is entitled to the floor.

RULE 10. No member shall speak more than once on the same subject or question until all who wish to speak shall have had opportunity to do so, nor more than twice without permission from the Chair. Each member while speaking shall designate the officer or member spoken of by his proper rank or title, according to his standing in the Order.

RULE 11. No motion shall be subject to debate until it shall have been stated from the Chair ; it shall be reduced to writing at the request of any two members.

When a question is before the Encampment, no motion shall be in order, except to close, for the previous question, to lie on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone for a certain time, to divide, to commit, or to amend ; which motions shall severally have precedence in the order herein designated, but a motion to lay an amendment on the table, shall not carry with it the proposition it proposed to amend.

RULE 13. On the call of five members, a majority of the Encampment may demand the previous question, which shall always be put in this form, "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all further amendments and all further debate.

RULE 14. When a blank is to be filled, the question shall be first taken upon the highest sum or number, and the longest and latest time proposed.

RULE 15. Any member may call for a division of the question when the sense will admit of it, but a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

RULE 16. Before putting the question, the presiding officer shall ask: "Is the Encampment ready for the question?" If no member rise to speak, he shall rise and put it; whilst the presiding officer is addressing the Encampment or putting a question, silence shall be observed in the Encampment room.

RULE 17. All communications, petitions and memorials shall be presented through a member of this Encampment, or by the presiding officer or Scribe; a brief statement of their contents shall be entered on the minutes.

RULE 18. Any member may excuse himself from serving on a committee if at the time of his appointment he is a member of two other committees ; no member can be appointed on a committee when absent from the Encampment.

RULE 19. The Patriarch first named on a committee shall act as chairman until another is chosen by the members of the committee. The mover of a resolution referred to a special committee is usually the first named thereon.

RULE 20. No committee can be finally discharged until all the debts contracted by it shall have been paid.

RULE 21. A motion to close is always in order after the regular business is gone through, which motion shall be decided without debate ; if decided in the affirmative, it is no adjournment until the Encampment is closed in due form.

RULE 22. A motion to lie on the table or to take from the table, shall be decided without debate.

tion shall be received, unless made by a member who voted in the majority in the first instance, nor can a motion for reconsideration be entertained unless made at the same time, or the first stated meeting after the matter proposed to be reconsidered has been acted upon.

RULE 25. No member shall be permitted to speak or vote, unless clothed in raiment suitable to his rank and station in the campment.

RULE 26. On the call of one-third of the members present, the yeas and nays shall be ordered; when the question is decided by yeas and nays, each member shall state and the names and manner of voting shall be recorded on the minutes.

IN MEMORIAM.

In fraternal remembrance of the PATRIARCHS OF "DAUPHIN ENCAMPMENT," who have traveled the rugged paths of life and "rest from their labors."

"Leaves have their time to fall;
And flowers to wither at the north wind's breath:
The stars to set; but all,
Thou hast ALL seasons for thine own, Oh!
Death."

In the freshness and glory of youth—in the sturdy vigor and prime of manhood, and in declining and decrepid age, they have passed to that better land where the storms of life are stilled, and where we trust they calmly repose upon the bosom of their Father and their God. A kindly remembrance of their many virtues we treasure fresh and green within our hearts—and all their frailties, incident to human life, we have hid from our gaze, and from our memories, beneath the sods that hide their forms forever from mortal view.
